TASTY PICTURE FRAMES TO Paving contracts are very profitable and this company, from its large experience and extended operations, is able to and does command a very large share of the work in this line advertised for and given out by the city government and private property owners. Bids in its interest for work for the coming year have been accepted to a large extent, and orders from other quarters are daily offered to it.

The success of other companies carrying on a similar business is well known. They pay their stockholders dividends varying from 20 to 40 per cent, and the stock of these companies commands ready sale, frequently at a large premium.

An instance showing our facilities and how we do business. A prominent supporter of Speaker Crisp called at the store yesterday afternoon and was measured for a Frince Albert suit and one of our handsome Montagnac overcoats. Said he was going to leave for the west this morning at 10 and wanted the clothes at 9. Our entire force was busy, yet we put six of our best hands at work, and the clothes were delivered this morning at 9. The quickest and the best fitting and finished job we have yet turned out. We mention this simply to show we are equal to any emergency. Congressional business a specialty.

SENATE. Immediately after the reading of the journal the oath of office was administered to Mr. Jones of Arkansas, re-elected. Among the department and other communi cations presented and referred was the report of the superintendent of the census in the matter of the establishment of a permanent census bureau, together with the draft of a bill.

Also the report of the secretary of the Senat showing contingent expenditures.

Mr. Sherman remarked that it had been the custom of the Senate not to proceed with the introduction of bills or such business until after the President's message had been re SWEARING IN NEW SENATORS, Mr. Hoar expressed the opinion (in which the Vice President concurred) that the first business was the question of administering the oath of office to Mr. Dubois of Idaho. Mr. Cullom's motion of yesterday (to that effect) was put and agreed to, and the oath was accordingly administered to Mr. Dubois. Mr. Hoar's similar motion as to Mr. Call of Florida was also agreed to, and the oath was administered to Mr. Call. THE CONTESTED SEATS.

On further motion of Mr. Hoar the papers in the matter of the credentials of Mr. Davidson

(claimant for Mr. Call's seat) were referred to the committee on privileges and elections with instructions to investigate and report at an early day, and on motion of Mr. Hale a like reference was made of the papers in the case of Mr. Claggett, claiming the seat of Mr. Du-

The Senate then, at 12:30, took a recess till

Although there was an absence of the rush which characterized the entrance of the public to the House galleries yesterday, there was this morning no appreciable diminution in the number of spectators. Every available crook Lodge (Mass.) that next to Mr. Reed. and cranny had its occupant, and the bright dresses of the ladies formed a pleasing frame to the bustling picture below. At the hour of noon Clerk McPherson called the House to order and the journal of yesterday's proceed-ings was read.

The clerk then announced that he was ready to receive any motion.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER. Mr. Holman of Indiana moved that the House Mr. Holman placed in nomination Charles F. Crisp of Georgia.

Mr. Henderson of Illinois placed in nomina-tion Thomas B. Reed. [Applause on republican

Mr. Simpson of Kansas placed in nomination Thomas C. Watson of Georgia.

Messrs. Outhwaite of Ohio, Henderson of Illinois, Oates of Alabama and Simpson of Kansas were appointed as teilers.

The roll was then called, with the following result: For Crisp, 228; for Reed, 83: for Watson, 8 (Messrs. Baker, Clover, Davis, Halverson, Kerr, McKeighan, Otis and Simpson.)

Messrs. Mills and Springer were heartily applauded when, in response to the call of their names, they recorded their votes for Crisp.

Besides the three candidates those not voting were Messrs. Bartine, Buchanan (Va.), Fyan, Harmer, Hoar, Sanford, Williams (Mass.) and Wilson (Ky.)

Wilson (Ky.)
The clerk, having announced the result, de-clared Mr. Crisp duly elected Speaker amid a storm of applause.

The clerk then appointed Messrs Mills and Reed as a committee to escort the newly elected Speaker to the chair—an appointment that was received with applause not unmixed with language. ESCORTED BY MILLS AND REED. In a few moments Mr. Crisp entered with Mr. Mills and Mr. Reed supporting him on either arm, and his march down the aisle was a perfect ovation, the democrats en masse rising and giving him cheer after cheer and the re-publican members rising also. SPEAKER CRISP'S SPEECH. When quiet had been secured Mr. Crisp said. "Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: me I return heartfelt thanks. I shall endeavor to discharge the duties of the office of Speaker with courtesy, with firmness and with absolute impartiality. [Applause.] Let us unite in the hope that our labors here may result in the advancement of the prosperity, the honor and the glery of our beloved country. [Applause.] I am now ready to take the oath of office."

The oath of office having been administer by Mr. Holman of Indiana, Rev. Dr. Milburn,

The oath of office having been administered by Mr. Holman of Indiana, Rev. Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain of the preceding House, upon request of Speaker Crisp, offered prayer as follows: Almighty and Eternai God, in whose hand our breath is and whose are all our ways, we render Thee devout and hearty thanks that Thou hast brought so many of the representatives of the people to the halls of this time-honored Capitol, consecrated by the memory of so many patriots, sages, heroes and statesmen. Breathe into the soul of every man on this floor a solemn sense of the lofty trust confided to him to maintain the Constitution, the dignity of the soil, the worker in the mines, at the forge and in the mills, as well as the rich and prosperous. Imbue these, Thy servants, with largeness of mind, kindliness of temper, hospitality of spirit, with courage and devotion to the interests of their constituents and of the whole country. Grant Thy blessing to Thy servant, the Speaker of this House, who has just taken the oath of office. Uphold him and every member of the House, keeping them in health and peace, and help them so to discharge the duties of their trust as that the country shall say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant;" and that the welfare of the country shall be prospered and carried forward by their labors; and to Thy name, oh, Father, shall be all the honor and glory, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Secretary Foster Better Today.

Secretary Foster is rather better today than he has been for three days past and this morning he sat up in his bed and ate his breakfast with a reliah. He has recovered from the symptoms of typhoid fever that developed Sunday and, though still weak, he seems to be gaining ground. Dr. Hamilton fears a return of the fever, but he hopes to prevent it by unremitting care.

SWEARING IN THE MEMBERS.

The work of swearing the members of the fifty-second Congress then began, the oath of office being administered by Speaker Crisp. The roll of states was called in alphabetical order and as many members sworn in at a time as could form in a half circle in front of the clerk's deak. The oath of office was read by the Speaker to the members, who stood with upraised right hands and signified their acceptance of it by an affirmative inclination of the head. The last member to be sworn in was Mr. O'Neill of Missouri, who stood alone in the area.

for sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Turner for door-keeper and Mr. Dalton for postmaster.

Mr. Henderson (III) offered as a substitute a resolution for the appointment of the present officers with the exception of chaplain, for which office Charles B. Ramedell was named Disagreed to without division.

The newly elected officers were then sworn in On motion of Mr. McMillin (Tenn.) a resolution was adopted directing the clerk to inform the President of the election of Speaker and

A COMMITTEE TO NOTIFY THE PRINCIPES On motion of Mr. Blount (Ga.) a rec was adopted for the appointment of a com mittee of three members, to join a similar committee on the part of the Senate, to inform the President that a quorum of both houses was as-sembled and ready to receive any communication he may see fit to make.

The Speaker appointed Messrs. Blount, Mills and Reed as such committee, but subsequently stated that Mr. Mills would be unable to serve and appointed Mr. Breckinridge (Ky.) in his

COMMITTEES TO BE APPOINTED. On motion of Mr. Springer a resolution directing the Speaker to appoint the committees on rules, accounts, enrolled bills and mileage, each to consist of the same number of mem-bers as in the Fiftieth Congress, and referring the rules of the Fifth Congress to the committee on rules was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Holman it was ordered that the daily hour of meeting of the House shall THE DRAWING OF SEATS.

On motion of Mr. Outhwaite the House then proceeded to the drawing for seats. Mr. Blount suggested that it would be, he thought, agreeable to each side that some arrangement should be made as to a division of the seats. He suggested that the democrats should occupy the right hand side, the division on the left hand side next to the main aisle and the division to the extreme left, and the republicans should occupy the right hand side and the division to republicans should occupy the two central di-visions on the left. Mr. Outhwaite of Ohio asked unanimous consent that ex-Speakers be permitted to choose seats in advance, but Mr. Oates of Alabama objected.

Mr. Biount was about to put the request in the form of a motion, but the Speaker stated that there was at the desk a resolution which that there was at the desk a resolution which would cover the case.

The resolution (the effect of which was to permit Messrs. Reed of Maine, Holman of Indiana and O'Neill of Pennsylvania to select their seats in advance) was adopted.

The members, with these exceptions, then retired behind the semi-circle of seats and anxiously awaited the result of the lottery.

MR. REED'S CHOICE. Mr. Reed's choice was the seat long occupied by Garfield, and Mr. O'Neill's selection was the one directly in front. Mr. Holman selected one more near the center aisle than be has ocone more near the center aisie than he has oc-cupied for many years.

Then fortune, in the shape of a blindfolded page, drew from a box marbles numbered cor-respondingly to the places occupied by the members of the roll cail.

A new member, Mr. Wheeler (Mich.), was the first fortunate one, and he secured a place near the center aisle about half way back. Mr. Lockwood (N. 1.) was the next to be favored and his selection fell on a seat well in favored and his selection fell on a seat well in front but rather far on the right hand side. Fortune again favored New York, for the next name called was that of Fellows, who secured a favorable position. Messra. Stevens of Massachusetts and Jolley of Staten Island were the next lucky ones.

The former chose a commanding position, while the latter modestly cast his lot in the rear of one of the republican divisions. The first alliance man to be caused was Mr. Halvorson (Minn.), and he selected a position on the son (Mint.), and he selected a position on the main democratic annex.

Messrs. Washington of Tennessee, Wilson of Missouri, Chipman of Michigan, and McAleer of Pennsylvania, were the next to be favored

Mr. Culberson (Tex.), though having a choice, took a seat far back, though not as far as that occupied by him last Congress. MR. CUNMINGS GETS HIS OLD SEAT. Mr. Cummings (N.Y.) secured his old seat in the front row, but subsequently changed it for one in the second one. Mr. Burrows (Mich.)

A narrow aisle alone will separate the ex-Speaker and Mr. Cockran (N.Y.), who se-lected a seat opposite Mr. Reed in the dem-ocratic annex. Mr. Enochs (Ohio) was lucky in being called early, but took a rear seat.

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS. That Seems to Be the Cause of Much Anzlety Now.

MENTS TO GRATIFY-SCENES IN THE HOUSE THE MORNING, DURING THE FORMAL ELECTION. The bitter feelings which were so app throughout the speakership contest had no part in the proceedings of the House today. Mr. Crisp's speech on appearing in the caucus last night after his nomination was made the excuse for satisfaction on the part of many who said they had opposed him upon the theory that his election would be a blow to tariff reform, and a keen disappointment was the only expression the most ardent Mills men gave vent to. When Mr. McMillin appeared on the floor this morn-ing many members who had not been with him in the fight rushed up to shake his hand and to tell him that he had made a good stand against the inevitable. Mr. Springer had on his coat

Having cast his vote and his influence to Mr Having cast his vote and his influence to Mr.
Crisp he was in high favor with the victors, and his smile broadened into a glow of good humor as he mingled among his fellow members. Mr.
Mills came in late and quietly took a seat among the men who fought and fell with him.
Mr. Crisp reached the Capitol before 11 o'clock and was at once installed in the Speaker's room, where he was soon surrounded by members, though his room was at no time crowded and there was no noisy rejoicing. His friends contented themselves with wringing each other's hands or sitting about silently hug-each other's hands or sitting about silently hus COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS.

The chief anxiety of most of the members has suddenly turned from the great contest to the question of committee assignments and the question of committee assignments and general House organizations.

Now that there is nothing to be gained as an issue in taking a contrary position, it is said by his friends that Mr. Crisp will follow a conservative and impartial course, preserving no no resentments to gratify, but following out the settled policies of the democratic party, with the best interests of the party in view.

When the nominations for Speaker was the best interests of the party in view.

When the nominations for Speaker were made in the House this morning that of Reed was the only one greeted with applause. Jerry Simpson, acting for the Farmers' Alliance party of nine, nominated Watson of Georgia, and a smile spread over the House.

When Judge Holman placed Judge Crisp in nomination the democrats reserved their applause for the moment when he should be declared elected and be excepted into the House.

The silence on the democratic side remained unbroken while the tellers counted the vote—Crisp 238, Reed 83 and Watson 8—but when the clerk announced that Mr. Crisp was elected
